

Brother D S "Nathaniel" Summers

April 19, 1937 - March 30, 2020

D.S. (Nathaniel) SUMMERS was born in St. George, South Carolina on April 19, 1937 to Shelly and Ora Summers. He was their third child. His father, Shelly Summers Sr. and Ora Summers were born in St. George SC. On September 1949 at the age of 36, while living in Mappsville Virginia, Shelly was tragically killed in a car accident. At an Early age, he learned how to be a strong provider. He understood the importance of being a strong leader and role model for his younger siblings. The skills he learned built a foundation for his adult life as a father, husband, church member and leader. On March 30, 2020, D.S. made his transition into the hands of his heavenly father.

D.S. (NATHANIEL) SUMMERS was a man of his WORD.

Man of Faith

In 1958, in Pahokee, Florida, Nathaniel first met Azalene Hall. They were married for 60 years. He believed in family and marriage. They had two children. Nathaniel believed so much in family, that he would round up the family and children and made sure that everyone was getting the Word of God. He took everyone to church with him and if the car was full, he made the kids walk to the church. We still had to beat him to the church. We could not be late.

FAMILY

Nathaniel was always encouraging family gatherings. Every summer, he would take us to meet different family members from Carolina to Georgia and New Jersey. He made sure we were going to see family.

He was a Serious and Dedicated man. Once he said it, it was going happen! Whatever he said, he believed in what he was talking about. If Nathaniel said, "I was going to whip you" then he was going to whip you. Nathaniel built his life around his community, church and family.

COMMUNITY

He believed in giving everyone the RESPECT due to them. He said, "You respect everybody, and you expect them to respect you." As a friend and neighbor, he always made himself available to assist others. Nathaniel would always make it his business to lend a helping hand to others. Every voting season he would round up the elderly and take them to vote. When church was over, he would stay behind to make sure all tasks was completed. He would not leave until everything was accounted for. He loved his church, pastor and above all the Word of God.

The Family

Preceded him in death, his father and mother, Shelly and Ora Summers, had 11 children: Jessie James, Shelly Jr, Nathaniel, Mary Alice, Altomese, Leroy, Florine, and Alonzo.

Nathaniel leaves to celebrate his life and legacy; his wife of 60 years: Azalene Summers; daughter: Connie Graham and son: siblings Alphonse Hudson; Barbara Ann, Mary Lee and Viola (all from the Central Florida area.)

“ Special Days

I remember those special days of laughters and cheers

Bringing things of old into remembrance

Keeping traditions alive by staying in touch with love ones and friends

Those days I held close to my heart through thick and thin

I remember those special days where I couldn't get out of bed

from the sweat of my brows and tears falling from my chin

Those days I struggled but I held on as much as I could

Remembering those special days kept me like the Lord said he would

Special days warmed my skin as well as my heart

Often leaving a sunburn but I didn't mind if it left a mark

The breeze and light covering shade from the old willow tree

Kept the kids occupied as I fell fast asleep

Those days are the days I held dear to me

As I start my new journey, I expect you to hold on to those days and remember me

Tell my cousins and great grands of those special days

Good and bad

But don't forget to tell them about my favorite day

When I held on tightly to my Lord's hands

“ To: Azalene and Family,
The deep sorrow and grief you are experiencing and will continue to experience; know that Yahweh your Heavenly Father is with you to help you bear it. For it is written Hebrews 13:05 ... I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.
Be strong in Yahweh!
... Grace be with you all. (Titus 3:15)

“ Dearest Cousin Azalene and Family: Please accept the heartfelt condolences of my family and Patricia. I feel blessed to have been re-united with you and Nate after 50 years. Our God knows all and He saw to it that we could have this time together. I cannot say that I understand how you feel. I can say that I have undergone the same experience with losing my wife. You are not alone...God gives us only so much time...I trust that you made the most of it on this earth. Make all memories into positive; may "Nate" be in heaven at least three days before the devil realizes that he is with our God.

Love,
LC.
