

Edgar Jenkins

October 10, 1942 - June 6, 2019

Edgar Jenkins, affectionately known as “Red” was born October 10, 1942 in Terrel, Georgia. He received his formal education in the Terrel County Public School system in Georgia.

At an early age, he gave his life to Christ and became a member of Mountain Grove Baptist Church which was and still remains a family church and heritage.

Edgar moved to Orlando, Florida and lived with his aunt Gladys. His expectation to have a better life once he come to Florida went into action. He found a place of employment at Morrison Cafeteria and was very good at what he did. Edgar began as a dishwasher and held several positions working his way up to supervisor for more than 38 years. He was always committed and dedicated to doing what was required and excelled in the restaurant industry. While working at Morrison, he met Patricia Holmes, the woman who would become his wife.

On December 2, 1967, Edgar and Patricia was united in Holy matrimony in her home state of South Carolina. Their union was blessed with three children.

Edgar became very involved in helping many people and had a love for cooking even the more. He had a big heart and loved his family. He was very caring and involved in his daughters lives. He was also very protective. He loved the residents of Carver Park and would share his love by volunteering to cook for them on holidays and many occasions. He would give rides to those in need, take out trash and often bake sweet treats for them.

Edgar was introduced to River of Life Christian Center by his friend, Tony Holt and became a faithful member. He enjoyed the leadership of Pastor Marvin and First Lady Deborah Jackson. He would often testify of how much he loved his church and his pastor. Under their leadership, his spiritual life was phenomenally blessed. Edgar will be greatly missed by all who loved and adored him.

He was preceded in death by his son, Edgar Kevin Jenkins; father, Andrew Jenkins; and mother, Martha Jenkins; brothers: Jimmy L. Clark, Lonnie Jenkins; sisters: Carrie B. Harvey and Maxine J. Brown.

Left to cherish his memory are his lifelong companion: Patricia Jenkins of Orlando, Florida; daughters: Shannon V. Jenkins, Alania T. Jenkins, Maxine Jenkins, and Shaniel Jenkins Perry, all of Orlando, Florida; brothers: Mack Jenkins (Mary) of Orlando, Florida, Charles Jenkins (Joyce) of Albany, Georgia and Mary Frances Jenkins of Albany, Georgia; special cousin: Lena Pearl Armstead of Orlando, Florida; 4 grandchildren; 2 great grandchildren and a host of loving nephews, nieces, other loving relatives and friends.

“ To the family and friends: please, accept our sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. You can find comfort in the Bible account found at John 11; Jesus said to her: “Your brother will rise.” Martha said to him: “I know he will rise in the resurrection on the last day.” Jesus said to her: “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life”. Please find more information about this beautiful promise at jw.org.

“ Dear family members I would like to offer my deepest sympathy I know how hard it is losing a love one because like yourself I lost love ones as well. Isaiah 25:8 Says He will actually swallow up death forever. Which is comforting to know. Please read Revelations 21:4 It will bring you comfort during this difficult time. Take care and have a nice day. And once again you have my deepest sympathy. Love jw. org.

“ Dad
You have been there for me no matter what choices I might have made..... and by God's grace given to you; you lovingly tried to repair my broken spirit and for that there's no expiration date of the love between a Dad and his Daughter. I'll miss our times we shared together but, the memories will always be in my heart
Love your daughter

“ To one of my most beloved uncles- I shall miss you terribly. Your caring and giving spirit and your kindness will forever come to mind whenever I think of you. Words can't express how much I'll miss you. I can't imagine my world without you in it. I know your pain is over and you are in a better place.

Until I see you again, Rest In Peace.

“ Our sincere condolences to the family for the loss of your loved one. The bible assures us that our heavenly father is aware of our pain and he is near to the brokenhearted (Psalm 34:18). It also gives us the promise that there will be a resurrection and that God will bring an end to death once and for all (Revelation 21:4). It is our hope that the power of God’s Word will help to ease your sorrow as you cherish the loving memories you shared together.

“ To My Dearest Brother,
"Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal!" The memories that we shared will forever be etched upon my heart. Reminiscing on the last time we were together, Mother's Day Weekend 2019, brings joy to my heart. I shall always remember the laughs we shared and the memories we created. You will always be apart of me. I Love You and we shall meet again. Take your rest dear brother; you are now in the care of God - what a wonderful place to be.

Your Sister,

“ Edgar
Although I'm sad without you and wish that you were here
Within my heart your lovely smile
still shines bright and clear.
I treasure all those moments of growing up with you
the childish things we'd do.
And as the years passed quickly by, we grew closer still
I will miss you, dearest Brother and you're forever in my heart
Until we meet again
