She was born to Mance and Annie Sarah (DeVaughn) Warren and was the second oldest of six children. She grew up in a musical household of faith, she loved watching her mother, sister, brothers, other family members and friends perform gospel songs for churches across Florida. She was a loyal servant to her Lord and Savior being an usher for many years while attending Carter Tabernacle CME Church in Orlando and Rejoice in the Lord Ministries both under the leadership of Pastor Roderick Zak. "Auntie Juanita" is what most of the kids called her, if she wasn't watching her favorite soap opera show would be in the kitchen cooking our favorite homemade sweet potato pies, candied yams, mac n cheese, biscuits and bread pudding. “ Juanita was the first professional I met upon moving to Orlando. She was my ride or die from henceforth. I am truly going to miss her. Just the other day I went to call her and then realized that I can never call her and talk again.
