

Nathaniel Jerger

October 4, 1947 - June 13, 2020

Executive Order in response to the COVID-19 Pandemic...we will only allow 10 individuals in at a time to enter the funeral home/cemetery. We must adhere to these guidelines so that we all can remain safe and secure during this crisis. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

The journey of life takes us through many transitions, much like the seasons of the year. We experience the miracle of birth: Nathaniel Jerger was born on October 4, 1947 in Tallahassee, Florida to Elizabeth Jerger. The freedom of childhood: He was educated in the Public Schools of Leon County. A time to realize adulthood, dreams and the joys of living a fulfilled life at peace with ourselves and our Creator: Upon completion of High School he enlisted into United States Army where he served in the Vietnam War.

After his tour of Vietnam, he met my mom, Brenda Ann Bariner and they were united in holy matrimony. To this union two daughters were born Angela Denise Jerger and Elizabeth Renee Jerger.

The final journey: the deep sleep of death as our beloved daddy, Nathaniel Jerger, met on June 13, 2020.

Nathaniel was preceded in death by his mother, Elizabeth Jerger; daughter: Angela Denise Jerger; two brothers: Robert Jerger and Edward Gay.

He leaves to cherish precious memories of his life to: a loving and devoted companion, Beatrice Sibilly of Apopka, Florida; daughter, Elizabeth Renee Jerger of Seattle, Washington; step daughter, Corette Joseph Williams of Apopka, Florida; one brother, Frank Gay-Jerger of Tallahassee, Florida; ten grandchildren; ten great grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.

“ Sorry I wasn't able to make it to your funeral. It really hurt that I wasn't able to make it. But I'm happy that you and I talked to each other the day before you went into the hospital and we got a chance to tell each other, I love you. You Rest In Peace Nat.

“ 28 “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”
Rest In Peace Uncle Nat thank you for ALWAYS embracing us
