“ We've know Aaron for many years. He would come to the office and share stories of the past that he knew as a young man in Florida. Aaron always had a smile and gave everyone he came in contact with a reason to smile. I'll miss you Aaron.

“ When there is sadness, love plants a garden of memories. In the mist, is a warmth that I call sunrays. I like to think that these rays are, those who have completed their circle of life on this earth, reminding us that they are not far away at all.

Wishing the Phillips family peace and moments where you feel wrapped up in your sweet memories of Aaron. Sending you heartfelt sympathy.
