

Princess Abigail Aponte

November 29, 2006 - March 14, 2018

Princess Abigail Aponte was born November 29, 2006 in Orlando, Florida to Indiana Lawson and Joseph Aponte.

She attended Elementary School with her siblings at Legends Academy. She was very active academically and loved math and reading. Abigail loved her church family and believed in God's promises at an early age. She was spiritually adopted as a daughter by Pastor Ayala which helped her become stronger in faith.

She loved doing art and crafts with her child life specialists, after she became ill she continued to keep her fashionista spirit by choosing cute clothes and keeping her nails painted. Abigail loved helping others and was very protective of her family. She reminded her mother daily of medical appointments and commitments. Abigail took pride in being the boss and making her own decisions.

She was preceded in death by her father, Joseph Aponte and her grandfather, Jose Miguel Aponte.

Princess Abigail leaves to cherish precious memories to: her mother, Indiana Lawson of Orlando, Florida; grandfather Victor Lawson (Teresa) of Jacksonville, Florida; grandmothers, Nereida Casiano of Orlando, Florida and

Martina Perez of Colon, Panama; siblings, Vianca Aponte, Anamaria Aponte, Kayla Aponte, Jesus Aponte (her twin), Yaira Aponte, Abraham Aponte and Joseph Aponte, Jr., all of Orlando, Florida; aunts, uncles and other special relatives, Jamilet Lawson (Michael) of Miami, Florida, Rebecca Morales (Johnathan) of Orlando, Florida, Jose Jimenez (Katrina) of Atlanta, Georgia and Victor Lawson, Jr. (Von) of Jacksonville, Florida; a host of other relatives and sorrowing friends
