

Agnes Theodora Stennett

October 27, 1927 - April 29, 2023

Agnes Theodora Stennett was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, cousin, and friend. Affectionately known as “Peggy” by her loved ones, she was born October 27, 1927, in Portland, Jamaica to the late Felix Theodore Bromfield and Helen Lucinda Falloon Bromfield. Her siblings were Eustace, Vincent, Milton, Cecil, Edith, Ivy, Leroy, and John.

Introduced by her cousin, she met a nice handsome chap named Robert Alexander Stennett. After a successful courtship, the couple wed on August 15, 1951, and relocated to Kingston, Jamaica. There they built a family of six children.

After many years of love, Robert fell ill and passed on November 3, 1974, where he was surrounded by his wife and children. After the loss of her husband, Agnes and her children migrated to the United States of America living in New York, Miami and lastly, Orlando. She was an exemplary employee through-out her career and earned many commendations in the healthcare field.

Her life was a celebration of faith, family, and love, and for that legacy she was immeasurably blessed. On Agnes’ last day, April 29, 2023, she went to sleep peacefully surrounded by her family.

She is survived by her children: Hope, Cecil, Ann, Charmaine, Peter, and Paul; grandchildren: Nigel, Andrew, Kaydene, Shanese, Jenelle, Chevanne, Jordan, Jonee, Jabari, Rachel and Jaheem, a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, family, and friends too numerous to mention.

Below is the website where contributors can donate to Agnes Stennett's church in lieu of flowers.

“ The Flower Of Love
Poet: Catherine Pulsifer

*Oh, sweet rose,
A lovely flower that comes from God above.
You bring us joy and peace
Like an angel sent with loving doves.*

*The petals spread their beauty,
Takes our breath away with glee.
Your fragrance fills the air,
For all to see.*

*Your creamy blush in every hue,
So delicate it's true.
Blessings of love are
Carried on by you.*

*We thank God for this gift
From up above,
The rose,
The perfect flower of love!*
