

Alfonzo Goodwin, Sr.

September 17, 1954 - February 7, 2019

Alfonzo Goodwin Sr. was born on September 17th, 1954 in Apopka, Florida and raised in Syracuse, New York. He would eventually move back to Florida in his 20's where he began to start his life and raise a family. He was a man of different traits and could build/fix anything you asked him to. He made a living for his family by driving in transportation for over 40 years. He enjoyed music, family, and working on things, whether it be cars or building things. He loved music from the time he was a young man, being the lead guitar player in the band, The Parliament. His love for music lives on through his children who now march in the band at Bethune-Cookman University. He was a very hard-working man that did anything for his family and those in his community. He was a man of pride and respect, which showed in everything he did from the work he did, to the words he spoke. When spending time with him, you would always leave with some sort of knowledge that he's shared, or from an old experience that he'd remember. Although he's been through a lot, he was one of the strongest men that we've known, and love and admire him for everything that he's done, and everything that he was.

He leaves behind his loving children: Deborah Goodwin, Desiree Goodwin, Kieara Goodwin, Symira Goodwin and Alfonzo Goodwin. His siblings: Casey Goodwin Jr, Garnett Goodwin (Abdullah M. Sabir), Annervia Goodwin, Clara Wilson, Tarsha Hill, 10 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

Jesus said, "In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you." John 14:2
