

Alice Raysor

June 28, 1928 - August 10, 2020

Executive Order in response to the COVID-19 Pandemic...we will only allow 10 individuals in at a time to enter the funeral home/cemetery. All visitors must wear a mask or facial covering when entering our facility. We must adhere to these guidelines so that we all can remain safe and secure during this crisis. Thank you for your understanding and your cooperation.

Alice Raysor was born on June 28, 1928, to the late Darby and Elizabeth English in Rembert, South Carolina. She took the vows; "Til Death Do Us Part", to Charles Raysor on April 10, 1947. She was a devoted and loving wife for 70 years until Charles closed his eyes to this world on December, 16, 2017.

Alice relocated to the "City of Brotherly Love", Philadelphia Pennsylvania; shortly after her union with Charles. Alice was a gifted seamstress and an amazing cook. She served as a Missionary at Rome Emmanuel Baptist Church in Philadelphia. In 1989, Alice and Charles purchased a home in Orlando just a short distance from her baby sister Mamie and Brother in-law Isaac. Alice and Charles also found their new church home at Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church of Eatonville, where she faithfully served as a Deaconess.

Alice was full of love and always had a huge smile on her face. She loved her family dearly and took pride in being the oldest of nine siblings.

Psalm 90:10 reads, "The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years...."

Alice was preceded in death by three sisters: Janie Mae Hodges, Molly Smith and Mattie Smith; and four brothers Marion English, Arthur English, Darby English, Jr. and Robert English.

On August 10, 2020, Alice closed her eyes for eternal rest and To God Be the Glory.

Alice leaves loving memories to her Sisters; Queenie Chatman of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and Mamie (Isaac) Jenkins of Maitland, Florida; God-children Rose Pratt, Sharon Pratt, Andre Pratt, Lloyd Jennings, Eddie Jennings; and a huge host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
