

Alonzo Watson Cunningham

January 25, 1954 - August 2, 2020

Alonzo was born January 25, 1954 in Oviedo, Florida to Hyracynthia Cunningham and Fred Cunningham. He received his high school education from Apopka High School in Apopka, Florida.

He was a loving husband, father and grandfather. His greatest love was his family, friends and making people smile. One of his greatest achievements was driving trucks for over 30 years. His sons followed in his footsteps driving trucks also. He was very proud of his wife and sons. In the midst of being a truck driver, he was also a jack of many trades such as: a roofer a carpenter and others. He believed in not giving up in life, regardless of whatever comes your way.

Alonzo was preceded in death by his mother: Hyracynthia; father: Fred Cunningham brother: Fred Cunningham; sister: Linda Cunningham; daughter Shirley Ann Cunningham.

He leaves to cherish precious memories to his wife: Elizabeth Cunningham of Zellwood, Florida; sons, Antwann Cunningham of Miami, Florida, Willie Isaac Cunningham of Zellwood, Florida, Alonzo Cunningham (Shontae) of North Carolina and Brandon Cunningham; daughters: Alexandria Cunningham of Zellwood, Florida, Lizantra Cunningham of North Carolina and Minitra Gardner (Dexter) of North Carolina; siblings: Gerald Cunningham of Jacksonville, Florida, Delores Payne of Sorrento, Florida and Hyacinthia Cunningham of Orlando, Florida; special nephew: Garben Zamor and special niece: Michele Wilson; eleven grandchildren; three great grandchildren; a host of aunts, uncles, other nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and sorrowing friends.
