“ If there was a time oh how beautiful it will be to share now and REFLECT on a light that shined in ME and others. In the lives of so many it touched atmospheres with sincere LOVE just simply being you a precious ROSE, yes you are.

If there ever was a chance just once more to literally hear your high pitched voice again in a lecture, it will make my day different. Or to experience once more our moments again known to us as a "BOMB.COM" moment, oh it would tickle our spirits alive, to hear your laugh at times, made it even more special and funny too (geesh).

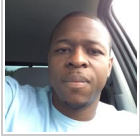

To see an extra ordinary SMILE for making you proud in times shared TOGETHER, will light up the atmosphere always. I pause to honor my precious rose, who will never be forgotten, but cherished. FOREVER...Goddie as your baby, you knew we needed each other indeed. My heart harden, i will always love you and miss dearly and no questions asked, i will always pattern my life in your love.

Sincerely,

Jessij. (Your Godbaby)

“ A Tribute to my beloved and dear friend Althea: "If Only I Knew"

If I only knew on September 14, 2014, that would be the last time...the very last time I would see you, I would take the time to treasure everything about you, and I would have taken that ride you ask me to.

If I only knew I would never hear your voice again, I would cherish your every word and every reflection of your voice with all my heart.

If I only knew that although we didn't always see the same thing in exactly the same light, I would have found more pleasure in your opinions, even when you did not share mine.

If I only knew tomorrow was not coming and I could share another day with you, I would make the most of every second to laugh as we so often did, to talk about our boys, have our Sunday brunches, attend our Wednesday night bible study, to look forward to Church on Sunday, and wrap our day up with a movie or Sunday dinner at one of our favorite restaurants.

If I only knew that my memories of you would be so precious, and that anyone can bring words of comfort, encouragement and healing, who knows how many lives I may have touched.

If only I knew I was about to lose your smile, I would thank you for all the joy you brought to my life.

Lastly..... If I only knew the friendship, love, strength and support you've always given me were about to end, I would have ran to your side and thanked you for the million times you've made a difference...the difference in my life.

Rest in Peace Althea until we meet again!

“ Althea allowed me to come and assist with the Sunday School Kindergarten class while taking Teach with Success training. She always taught the love of Jesus and bible stories in the most simplest way with hand on activities. she encouraged me in my faith and succeed her as dept superintendent. Funny, transparent and always wanted the best for everyone. I am so thankful to have been a beneficiary of a life well lived. Jeremy and Andrew you both are apart of our family and we are here for you. Love you both. Theresa Taylor
