

Amanda Lovene Johnson

August 10, 1983 - January 12, 2023

Amanda Lovene Johnson was born August 10, 1983 to Patricia Ward and Rickey Johnson. Amanda's early years were spent in Oakland, Florida, where she attended Trinity Missionary Baptist Church. She attended Evans High School - graduating with honors and having already completed her AA degree.

Amanda was a proud graduate of the University of Florida, where she earned a B.S. in Communication Disorders in just three years. She also graduated from Barry University where she obtained a M.A. in Academic Counseling. Furthering her academic studies, Amanda went on to earn her Doctorate of Education from Nova Southeastern University in Human Services.

Amanda's commitment to helping students discover their unique gifts and her desire to help transform their life's trajectory, steered her work as a guidance counselor at Robinswood Middle School and at Orange County Virtual School. This same passion for education guided her decision to start her own Education Consulting firm, Academic Counseling Consultants. As a mom, she saw a need for strong community support. Connecting with a few like-minded women, Amanda helped launch New Hue Media - a digital resource guide for Florida families.

On the evening of January 12, 2023, Amanda was ushered into eternal rest.

Her transition was a tremendous loss to her family, friends, and community. Amanda was greatly loved and will be deeply missed. She'll be remembered for her contagious smile, her infectious laugh, and her encouraging spirit.

Amanda is preceded in death by her grandparents: Willie and Christine Ward, Tom and Blanche Johnson; her Father, Elder Rickey Johnson; her Brother, Eric Massey; and her Sister, Jamilah Johnson.

Amanda leaves to cherish her memory; her Mother, Patricia Ward; Sons: Shiah Clinkscales and Amari Clinkscales; Siblings: Jennifer Bellinger, Elizabeth Bellinger, Jasmine Robinson, Helenia Tribbey and Michelle Andino; and a host of loving aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

“ I am heartbroken by the unexpected loss of Amanda. I had the privilege of working with her while I was at Robinswood Middle School. She was smart, creative, and extremely caring. She consistently put the students first and relentlessly worked to find ways to reach each of students. I know she has touched many lives in her work and interactions. Now she has wings in heaven and will probably continue to help others.

“ Amanda was the 8th grade counselor at Robinswood I remember her fondly if I would get a student who didn't want to learn and was disruptive I would go to her to talk with the student and she would make that student see the light she was an awesome counselor and young lady May God bless her family . Rest in Heaven Amanda ❤️

“ Praying for light and love for Amanda’s family and friends as we deal with this incredible loss. To Amanda’s sister, Jennifer, I ask for God’s guidance and grace as you become the torch bearer of your sister’s life and legacy, letting everyone you encounter know what a wonderful human being she was. Know that she is not fully gone though, because a part of her and the wonderful memories we made lives within each one of us. Know that whenever you need encouragement, any one of us—our Robinswood family—will be there for you. We will each encourage one another with the same warm smile that Amanda had and will forever relish in the wonderful and beautiful memories we had with her. Stay encouraged as Amanda would have wanted us to be. Amanda, rest peacefully in heaven. We love you!
