

Amos Barnes Sr.

February 17, 1936 - December 17, 2024

Amos Barnes, Sr. was born on February 17, 1936, in Jackson County, Florida, to the late Arthur Barnes, Sr. and Emma Robinson Barnes. Amos grew up in a close-knit family. He attended public school in Jackson County. In 1956, he moved to Orlando, Florida.

For over thirty (30) years, Amos worked as a Block Machine Operator with Florida Rock Company. Amos later retired from C & L in the late 1990s. Following his retirement, he enjoyed a life of leisure and enjoyment.

Amos was married to the late Willie Mae Wilson for over 30 years. He was also the proud father of three children, Brenda Green, Elnora Lewis, and Amos Barnes, Jr. He cherished being a grandfather to his four grandchildren. He also enjoyed fishing, socializing, and visiting with family and friends.

At 88, Amos Barnes, Sr. of Orlando, Florida, passed away peacefully on December 17, 2024.

Amos was preceded in death by his four brothers, Lindberg Barnes, Eddie Barnes, Joseph Barnes, and Roy Barnes; two Sisters, Ella Mae Fitzgerald and Fannie Barnes.

He is survived by his loving Son, Amos Barnes, Jr; 2 Daughters, Brenda

Green, and Elnora “Betty” Lewis; his Two Brothers, Arthur Barnes, Jr. and Jerry Barnes (Marilyn), all of Quincy, Florida; Three Sisters: Lillie Pennick, Eleese Lockwood, and Arie Sailor (Edward); Two Sisters-in-law, Pearl Barnes, and Linda Barnes, both of Quincy, Florida; and a host of devoted nieces and nephews, other loving relatives, and friends.
