

Amy Shawnte Goodman

October 29, 1977 - August 11, 2023

Amy Shawnte Goodman was born October 29, 1977 in Atlanta, Georgia. She attended Alfred Blalock Elementary School. She then moved to Florida and graduated from Lee Education Center in 1997. She attended Lake County Vocational Technical Center, where she received a certificate in finance in 1998. In 2001 Amy attended Lake Technical Center where she acquired her Nurses Assistant Certification.

Amy G. fought a strong fight while battling Lupus, but she always use to say: "I may have Lupus but Lupus doesn't have me". She was such a strong individual and she would do anything for anyone! She was a loving and caring mother, sister, auntie, cousin, god mother and friend; everyone cherished her. She had a smile that would brighten up a room, a smile that you would never forget. What such a beautiful smile and laugh she had.

Amy was preceded in death by her mother, Evelyn McGowan Lazard and father, Willie Goodman; step dad: Charles Benard Hartley.

Amy leaves to cherish precious memories to her son, Chavis McCloud; daughter, Nia Davis of Eustis, Florida; parents: like a father, Rudolph (Jacqueline) Handy of Umatilla, Florida; brothers: Michael McGowan of Tavares, Florida and Marcus McGowan, Sr. of Dallas, Texas; a host of cousins, other relatives and sorrowing friends.

“ *Jesus is the hope in the dawn of each day,
The feeling of joy that keeps sadness away,
the undying love that brings light to the soul,
The caring and comfort that heal and make whole.*

With deepest sympathy and much prayer that the Lord will fill your days with his peace and bring comfort to your heart. Our sincere condolences.

“Amy when we first met each other you said we had an instant connection. You became my cousin inlaw and you remain the same since I've known you. You will truly be missed and I will keep an eye on Nia. She's such an amazing young lady I know you're smiling down on her from above. Take your rest cousin until we meet again.
