

Angeleter Renee Marks

March 4, 1956 - January 17, 2025

Angeleter Marks was born March 4, 1956 in Winter Park, Florida, to the late Mary Dowdell and Clarence Marks, Jr. On January 17, 2025, she departed from this life, to go to glory at the age of 68.

Education

Angeleter, fondly known as “Angie” by family and friends, attended Webster Elementary School in Winter Park and Hungerford High School in Eatonville, Florida.

A Life of Service

Throughout her life, Angie was a dedicated and loving woman, who touched many lives. She worked tirelessly as a Certified Nursing Assistant at Parklake Rehabilitation Center and Nursing Home in Winter Park for many years, serving others with compassion and skill.

A Loving Life as a Mother, Aunt, Sister, Grandmother and Great-Grandmother
To many, she was more than just a caregiver—she was a mentor, a guide, and a pillar of strength. To us, she was our mother, and first teacher in true values. Mom believed in all of us, instilling in us the confidence to believe in ourselves. She always told us how proud she was, and that played a crucial role in shaping our identity and the people we became.

A Legacy of Respect and Family Values

She also taught us the value of respect. She reminded us that respect is earned, not given, and that respect begins within oneself. This is one of the many lessons our amazing Mother instilled in us—lessons we will never forget.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Mary Dowdell and Clarence Marks, Jr., and her sister, Carolyn Dowdell Jordan.

She leaves to cherish fond memories: three loving SONS, Shawn Marks (Janae), Orlando, Florida, Warren Marks (Katty), Apopka, Florida and Jeremy Southerland, Winter Garden, Florida; SIBLINGS, Sharon Dowdell Crumb (Melvin), Verdia Davis Johnson (Billy), Nancy Christian, Loretta Wright, James Lovett, and Kareem Lovett, all of Orlando, Florida; two GRANDDAUGHTERS, Calisia Coston (Therion), and Jaylynn Southerland; three GRANDSONS, Jacob Marks, Ethan Marks, and Jalen Marks; two GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN, Therion Coston and Tyerion Coston; one UNCLE, William Felder, Sr.; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other caring relatives and friends.
