

Angeline Harris

June 8, 1944 - April 9, 2020

Angeline Harris was born June 8, 1944 in Sumter, South Carolina to parents Reverend Alfred Horne and Marion Horne. She relocated to Orlando, Florida in 1961. Angeline was a graduate of the Jones High School Class of 1962. She married after graduation and gave birth to five children, to whom she was very devoted.

Angeline worked in a uniform factory for many years before joining the Frito Lay Corporation. She worked several positions within the company and retired after 32 years.

Angeline was a devoted member of the Mt. Pleasant Missionary Baptist Church in Orlando, Florida for over 50 years. She loved to sing. This passion led her to sing with the Mattie Moss Chorus, the Cathedral Choir, the Voices of Praise, and the Mass Choir. She faithfully attended the Adult Women's Class #2 Sunday school class. Although she was a very soft spoken and private person, she never hesitated to help those in need. She was a very kind and generous woman. Her home was always filled with family, extended family, friends and loved ones.

Angeline was preceded in death by Reverend Alfred Horne, Marion Horne, Rosa Horne, Felton Rumph, and Elizabeth Rumph.

Left to cherish her memory are children: Angela Harris of Orlando, Florida; Marian Hollinger of Orlando, Florida, Rachel Glover (Terry) of Haines City, Florida, Anthony Harris of Orlando, Florida and Betty Harris of Apopka, Florida; brother, George White (Patricia) of Hillside, New Jersey; ex-husband, Glover Harris of Orlando, Florida; 13 grandchildren; 15 great grandchildren; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.
