

Annette Harrell

June 28, 1963 - April 13, 2024

Annette Harrell was born June 28, 1963 in Selma, Alabama to parents, Willie Harrell, Sr. and Bertha Lou Phillips Harrell. At a young age, the family moved to Apopka, Florida and she attended and graduated from Apopka High School.

She was employed at Southland Gardens and then later began to work for the Dollar General Store.

Annette was an excellent cook. She loved cooking and baking different types of food. Everyone loved her food, especially her potato salad and cornbread dressing. She had a generous heart and would help anyone when help was needed. She had a loud mouth, but a heart of gold. She was not a mean person, but she would tell you how she felt.

Family meant a lot to Annette, so much so that she would talk on the phone with her two daughters, Angie and Felicia each and every day. She was very close to her sisters and brothers and especially her grandchildren. She will be missed by her fiance Michael, the love of her life.

Annette was preceded in death by her Father, Willie Harrell; Mother, Bertha Lou Phillips Harrell; Niece, Cindy Lowe; and Nephew, Benjamin Harrell.

Annettes is also survived by her 7 Grandchildren: Lasaya Reddick, Clifton Reddick, Lawrence Lockhart, Keyrontae Harrell, Arkevia Washington, Charlie Blanks, III, and Marcus Washington, Jr.; 6 Nephews, 2 Nieces, and a host of cousins, other loving relatives and sorrowing friends.
