

Annie Margaret Flowers Farrow

February 1, 1934 - June 7, 2019

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."- II Timothy 4:7-8

Anne Margaret Farrow was born February 1, 1934 to L. K. and Eddie Mae Flowers. Anne Margaret began her education in Troy, Alabama. After graduating from high school, she married John Henry Farrow. To this union six children were born. Anne and her family moved from Troy, Alabama to Winter Garden, Florida where they lived for several years and later moved to Orlando, Florida.

Anne was a Headstart Teacher; while teaching she continued her education and graduated from Valencia College. She had a passion for teaching, making the difference in the lives of children. Her career in education spanned over 35 years.

Anne was affectionately known as "Queen Anne" and "Mother Farrow". She warmed the hearts of many with encouraging words and a pleasant spirit.

Anne loved the Lord and served Him wholeheartedly as a faithful member of Bethlehem Baptist Church of Winter Garden, Florida. Upon moving to Orlando, Florida she became a member of El Bethel Temple of Jesus. Where she later became one of the Church Mothers, serving also as a Sunday School Teacher and Prayer Warrior.

Anne was preceded in death by husband, John Henry Farrow, father, L.K. Flowers, mother, Eddie Mae Flowers, daughter, Sharon Henry, son, Vincent Farrow, and daughter-in-law, Darla Farrow.

Anne Margaret Farrow leaves to cherish precious memories to: Children, Regina Flowers (Austin), Debra Pollard (Andrew) Emmette Farrow (Rose) and Rodney Farrow, all of Orlando, Florida; twelve grandchildren; great-grandchildren; nephews, nieces, cousins, a host of other loving relatives and friends.

“ I grew up listening to Mrs.Farrow singing in the choir with my grandmother Cleopatra james.she was always very pleasant with me when I would come hi ome to visit my family from Daytona beach for church. The one song she sang that I still sing today is "He already done what he said he would do" last time I saw here was at my grandmother's funeral .I'm not sure you know how much I just loved her. Emmett my Classmate your mom was so very special. ❤️

“  I'm so sorry for your loss. May the God of comfort provide peace to your family during this difficult time. A scripture that helps me to endure is 2 Thessalonians 2:16, 17 which says that God, our Father, gives comfort and hope to our hearts. May He and his son Jesus be with your family, granting you peace and hope.*

“ My heart was saddened when i heard that mother farrow had passed but rejoicing because i know she has moved on with the lord. She was a sweet and honorable woman and she was at one time my mother in law. Loves her family very much. My condolences to the farrow family praying for God to give you comfort, peace and strength. 😞

“ My heart is sad, yet rejoices. Sad because a precious jewel is no longer with us. Rejoicing because she is with her heavenly Father.

Mother Farrow always greeted me with love, a smile and a hug. I will always cherish the memories.

To the family and friends, my prayers are with you all during this difficult time.
