

Mr. Anthony Edward King Sr.

March 24, 1960 - April 1, 2017

Born to the late, Joseph Dinkin, Jr. and the late Mary Louise Walker, Anthony graduated from Lakeside High School in 1979 in Nyack, New York, where he received his diploma in general education. He is predeceased by (3) brothers; Dale Dinkins, Wilbert Alston and Leroy Jacobs.

Anthony left New York and ventured to Kissimmee, Florida, where he settled and met Priscilla that was when Kissimmee became his home. He had worked many jobs in the hotel industry, but the Waldorf Astoria Hotel, Disney, Orlando FL was his dream job and he loved it.

He was well known in the community, especially by the children, because he had the "lil store". Most of his family and friends referred to him as "Big Red". His favorite time spent was on the fish creek with his mother-in-law, Carrie, fussing and arguing as usual.

Besides fishing, you could find him either watching his favorite westerns, running his "lil store" or sitting in the yard talking to the young men in the community. He was truly the "Gentle Giant"; just one of his many nick names.

He leaves to cherish his memories: Wife: Priscilla Welsh; Mother-In-Law: Carrie Middleton; One Daughter: Sch'Keria King; Three Sons: Anthony King, Jr., Garrie King, Keith King Timothy King, all of New York; One stepson: Willie

Martin, Kissimmee, Fl; Three Brothers: Joseph Dinkins, Jr., John King, Bobby King, all of New York; Four Sisters: Andora Dinkins, Betty Clayton, Rosie King, Melanie Brown; Two Sister-In Laws: Barbara McMillian and Marnita Baker (Ted); Best friend and God Sister, Joan Lacks; Twenty grandchildren, a host of nephews, nieces and friends, a good friend, Zerrick McMillian, who all loved Anthony "Big Red" and he will be truly missed.
