“ Our Dearest Uncle Arnold:

*It takes many special qualities to make an Uncle like you,
God knew the need for someone to add
humor to our hearts,
Someone who would spice our lives with laughter and mischief,
Someone we could run to for special comfort and friendship;
Someone whose life would touch ours in many ways...
So he gave us you Uncle Arnold.*

*It takes many special qualities to make an Uncle like you,
It takes a special kind of love that seems to know no end,
The best memories are those of you and your sisters, our mother
Rosalind and your dearly departed sister Aunt Jeanette,
Watching your relationship has taught us the true meaning of family;
Sticking together and recognizing that Blood is Truly Thicker than Water.
Your relationship with your sisters has taught us to remain close and cherish
each other always.*

*So Yes, It takes many special qualities to make an Uncle like you,
And that's why we loved you Uncle Arnold, so rest for now until we meet again.
Miss You, Miss You, Missing You..!*

*Love Always Your 4 Nieces & Favorite Nephew

“ I have a few words to say about my Awesome Grandfather. As a little boy I looked up to him, he was the funniest and coolest person ever. I always loved visiting him and seeing him. Those times were amazing having him around talking about old times and talking about silly baby things I did around him. I will deeply miss him, it's a true honor to have my middle name be Arnold, I will embrace it as long as I live. Thank You grandpa Arnold for helping me to be the person I am today. Your Grandson Marquise, I Love You...!

“ I am sending my deepest sympathy to my family. I am Rosalind and Arnold's oldest living cousin. Our mothers were sisters and we grew up together with much love and affection for each other. Arnold was a kind, generous, and funny man who will never be forgotten by those who knew and loved him. He will always live in my heart. aka cousin Sister and Family.

“ My brother Arnold and I were like two-peas-in-a-pod, we shared many happy and sad times together growing up. The vacations, parties in DC & Maryland were the times. He loved to dress and was proud to be a Mason. He loved to come home for a late night in New York at Kat's in the Bowery for a good Corn Beef & Pastrami sandwich, a good Hotdog & Hard Salami stick from Best Kosher Market in Newark. We were always talking on the phone I know he wouldn't want me to be sad or hurt too long but, this void I'm feeling of missing him is going to be hard for me not to be able to pick up the phone and check on him. Arnold I will always keep the memories we shared dear to my heart until we meet again over in the Glory Land. I can here him right now saying leave me alone Rosalind, that meant I was getting on his nerves. To My One And Only Brother "Rest You Are At Peace" I Love You Your Baby Sister Ros..!

“ The Lords gift to me is Arnold Bradley, a loving and care father-in-law with a heart of gold and a loving soul. He provided me with 2 beautiful gifts, his son Courtney Bradley and his grandson Marquise Arnold Bradley. I will always be grateful for these gifts and also my time I spend with my father. The 2 hour phone calls filled with laughter and football. My father is my gift to you Lord embraces him with your love and grace. As you welcome him into your kingdom allow him to spread his wings wide to embrace us as we mourn his lost and celebrate his journey into the hereafter with you Lord, Amen. I love you daddy.

“ Always & forever will be in my heart. I remember Uncle Arnold being very cool and this gorgeous and lovable uncle. I remember telling him, he was my favorite uncle and he said I was his favorite niece, but he probably told all my sisters that too. Favorite or not, I know I had a very special place in his heart. Gone from us, but never will be forgotten. Love Jo
