We gather together to honor the life of Arthy Sony Cetoute, a loving son, brother, and friend. Through his times with us was brief, the impact he left behind will be felt forever.

Arthy was bright and vibrant soul, known for his infectious smile, his boundless energy, and his kind heart. He had a natural ability to bring joy to those around him, always eager to lend a hand or share a laugh. Whether it was through his passion for basketball or the way he effortlessly connected with people, Arthy touched the lives of everyone he met.

Though only 17, Arthy carried wisdom beyond his years. He embraced life with curiosity, always eager to learn, explore, and grow. His dreams were vast, and his future held limitless potential. As we mourn the loss of a life taken too soon, we find comfort in remembering his spirit, his laughter, and the light he brought to our lives.

In the quiet moments, Arthy found peace in basketball. He was always someone who lived with intention, driven by his love for his family and friends. His caring nature and sense of compassion were evident in everything he did.

As we say goodbye to Arthy, we hold tight to the memories we shared with him- the moments of laughter, love, and friendship that will live on in our “ Daylilies are known for their toughness. They grown in the worst conditions. You try to destroy them and they grow even more beautiful and stronger. Jokingly, Arthy told me that I remind him of a Sunflower because, he said I'm always happy. I told him that he reminds me of a Daylily flower. For all that knows him, you know why.

“ Arthy my heart is broken 💔😭 and I still can't believe you are gone. You had some many goals in life. You wanted to go to the NFL so you can give back to Haiti. You would say " Haiti 2025 I'm coming". Also you wanted to provide a better life for your mom and sister and I'm praying that God will grant them that life you will not be able to provide them with on your behalf. Thank you and your brother for giving me the opportunity to be that mother figure in your life. It wasn't easy. We had our ups and downs but at the end of the day I still love both you and Ralph. My heart is 💔😭 and words cannot express how I'm feeling inside. Nathan misses you and love you a lot and so does Richie. We love you Arthy RIP☐
