Asburn completed his education and took a job at the Revere Mining Company in St. Elizabeth for a number of years. In 1987 the opportunity arose and Asburn migrated to the U.S. where he settled in Kissimmee.

Asburn was a jovial, kind, caring, passionate and very straight forward person. He was full of love for his family and everyone else. His doors were always open and so was his heart.

"Papa/Daddy, a heart has beautiful as yours should never quit beating. We will miss you forever"
