

Benson Rashaud Hill, Sr.

September 13, 1980 - November 30, 2021

Benson -- The Beginning

Benson Rashaud Hill, Sr. was born September 13, 1980 in Orlando, Florida to parents, Jesse Allen Hill and Rose Mary Blackshear.

Benson -- The Growing Phase

Benson attended Orange County Public Schools, graduating from Evans High School. He was a gifted and talented artist and was known for sketching and creating artwork for various tattoos and different scenic locations. He was also well known for his tall stature, and broad shoulders during his time working as security personnel at various clubs and events.

Benson -- A New Beginning

Benson had a passion for playing pool, reading, and watching anime. He loved Marvel and DC comics, and it was always shown with his various tee shirts that he wore daily. He attended numerous car shows, and comic-con conventions. You would always know Benson was approaching as he loved to play and jam to his Jamiroquai.

Benson loved to cook. He was taught culinary skills by his mother at an early age. He later developed a love for Barbequing, and could be seen every weekend grilling his leg quarters, ribs, hamburgers, and hotdogs.

Benson was family oriented and loved spending quality time with his family eating, being at the beach and playing cards. His greatest joy was being a dedicated, loving, and proud father to his boys. He enjoyed nature walks, going to the movies, playing different fighting games daily, as well as collecting comics with his boys.
