

Bernice L. Cuyler

November 3, 1929 - September 29, 2014

Mother Bernice L. Cuyler was born on November 3, 1929 in Colquitt, Georgia to Bertha Jackson.

Mother Cuyler was filled with Gods Eternal Holy Ghost. She was the Assistant to the Church Mother of Maitland Apostolic Church of Jesus, Inc.. Mother loved the Lord, as well as her Church. As only she could say as she entered the Sanctuary, "PRAISE THE LORD MY PEOPLE".

The Love Mother Cuyler had for everyone reflected from her smiling face. The Lord blessed her with the beautiful gift of singing. Always singing songs of Zion, hearing her voice would up-lift you.

Not only did Mother live for the Lord, she continued to minister and sing for the residence and workers at the Gardens of Depugh Nursing Home where she resided until the Lord saw fit to call her home on Monday, September 29, 2014. Her departure is a deep and personal loss and she will truly be missed by all who were touched by her loving heart.

Mother Cuyler was preceded in death by her mother, Mother Bertha Jackson and her sister, Adella Jackson.

Mother leaves to cherish precious memories to her daughter, April M. DuBois;

a loving son-in-law, Adam DuBois, III; six grandchildren, Willie, Christopher, Curtis, Tawanna, Biannca and Bridgett; two great grandchildren, Christopher, Jr. and Amoni; nephews, Roger Desue (Venus), Theordore Woodall and Cornell Desue; nieces, Juanita Johnson and Tammy Parker (Carl); a loving godson and goddaughter, Elder Edwin Whittaker, Sr. and Sister Kim Whittaker; a host of cousins other relatives and friends.
