“ To the Wynn Family. My deepest sympathy. Mrs. Wyn was truly a lady of great stature. I had the opportunity to work with and beside her on funerals. The caring and compassionate character she possessed was never questioned. Pleasant to be around and had a kind word to say to everyone she came in contact with. My heartfelt condolences. RIP

“ I remember Mrs. Bernice Y. Wynn from my Zander’s days of my youth she was a lady of good character in showing you the ropes of being a woman of standards when working with different families in funeral service and in the church and community in every level of life. I will remember her as a Christian woman who always believed that the people comes first and foremost to treat everyone equally! Rest well Mrs. Wynn for you are now the “head lady attendant for Christ” weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning!
