

Beth M. Dean

April 30, 1945 - September 22, 2020

Beth M. Dean was born April 30, 1945 in Rochester, New York to parents Frank White and Rachel White. She attended Rochester Madison High School.

Beth met and married Reverend Albert E. Dean in Rochester, New York and to this union they were blessed with two children, whom they loved and adored. The two relocated to Orlando, Florida in 1981 where they owned and operated a fish market in Clermont, Florida. Beth was later employed with the City of Orlando as a Records Manager until her retirement in 2010.

Beth, along with her husband, faithfully served as Pastor and First Lady of Mount Hermon Missionary Baptist Church in Orlando, Florida for more than 20 years. She was an active member for more than 15 years and worked with the Deaconess Ministry. Beth also sung in the choir for years. She loved to sing the song, "Somebody Somewhere is Praying for Me".

Beth became ill with a stroke in 1996 but continued to live a full life cooking, cleaning and traveling.

The Lord in His infinite wisdom deemed it timely to call our beloved Beth M. Dean to her eternal home in glory on September 22, 2020. Her departure is a deep and personal loss to her family and friends, as she will be greatly missed.

Beth was preceded in death by her parents: Frank White, Sr. and Rachel White; husband, Reverend Albert E. Dean; and brother, Frank White, Jr.

She leaves to cherish precious memories - her daughter, Robin White of Orlando, Florida; son: Bryant Dean of Orlando, Florida; Stepson Eric Dean of Hartford, Connecticut; sisters: Marilyn Barfield of Charlotte, North Carolina and Rochelle Brock of Rochester, New York; grandsons: Trenton White and Tristan White, both of Orlando, Florida; granddaughters: Brielle Dean of Orlando, Florida and Tamara Jones-McClendon of Hartford, Connecticut; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.
