

Betty J. Cooley

September 13, 1938 - August 9, 2019

Betty J. Cooley was born on September 13, 1938 in Winter Garden, Florida, to parents J.B. White and Nellie Mae Singleton White. She graduated from Charles R. Drew High School in 1957, and also attended Rollins College in Winter Park, Florida.

Betty met her husband James in 1970 in Winter Garden, Florida. Shortly thereafter, they were married on March 28, 1970. Betty had four children, Victor, Timothy, Ben and Angel.

During Betty's life, she was considered a second mother to many kids in the Winter Garden area. She would often pick up children to attend many athletic, band, and various other school activities.

Betty was employed with several companies locally before settling at Walt Disney World. She worked for Disney for twenty plus years until retirement.

Betty was a member of the 9th Street Church of Christ for many years and remained an active member until her health began to decline.

Betty had a beautiful heart. She never met a stranger and had the ability to make you laugh at almost anything. Of all the things to know about Betty, she was loved and loved her husband, children and grandchildren. She will surely be missed by all who knew and loved her.

Betty was preceded in death by her father: JB White; mothers: Nellie Mae Singleton White and Alice White; and sister: Beatrice Dash.

Left to cherish her precious memory are her husband: James Cooley of Ocoee, Florida; sons: Ben Cooley (Patricia) of The Colony, Texas, Timothy Brown (Josephine) of Ft. Myers, Florida and Victor Holmes (Gail) of Oakland, Florida; daughter: Angel Cooley of Aurora, Illinois; beloved relative: Cheryl Pollard; dear friends: Diana Smith, Karlene Brown, Freddie Anderson, Vivian Tindal and Rose Slater; the 9th Street Church of Christ church family and host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
