

Boswell A. Annon

December 14, 1914 - June 18, 2013

Boswell A. Annon of Eatonville, Florida was born to Florence Campbell on December 14, 1914 in St. Elizabeth, Jamaica. He was the first of seven children. He married the Late Eunice Edwards and to this union two sons were born, Philemon (deceased) and Herman. In 1950, Boswell migrated to the United States as a contracted farm worker and was foreman at the Farm Worker's camp in Winter Garden, Florida. During that time, he met and married the Late Ethel Mae Morrell and together they made Eatonville their home. Boswell operated Boswell's Tavern in Eatonville for many years. He is survived by his sons: Herman and Percival; Daughter: Tasha; Four sisters: Thelma (England), Eunice (England), Myra (Jamaica), and Selvin (England); Family friend: Gena (Ohio); Grandchildren, and Great-Grands.

Tribute Wall

“ Boswell A. Annon

October 22, 2023 at 05:49 PM

“ Pops, wish you were here. I miss listening to your funny childhood stories and the great laughs we had together.

You're gone but not forgotten.

Herman

Herman Annon - July 17, 2013 at 12:39 PM

“ Pops, wish you were so that we could laugh together again and me listening to you telling funny stories of your childhood. Gone but not forgotten.

Herman

Herman Annon - July 16, 2013 at 12:25 PM