

Mr. Brandon D. Bascom

August 15, 1985 - December 17, 2016

Mr. Brandon Demetrius Bascom was born on August 15, 1985, to devoted parents, Minister Ronnie Bascom and Evangelist Sophia Bascom. At a young age he was baptized in Jesus name at the Apostolic Church of Jesus Apopka. Brandon's early years were spent in Zellwood, Florida, where he attended Praise Tabernacle Christian School and Tavares Christian School. Brandon wanted to attend public school because of his love for sports particularly football so in his sophomore year he transferred to Tavares High School. While attending school here he joined the football team. In 2003 he graduated with his high school diploma. Ensuing a higher education Brandon moved to Gainesville, Florida where he attended Santa Fe Community College. In 2006 he received his Associate of Arts degree.

After graduation Brandon moved backed to Zellwood, Florida to pursue his dream as a humanitarian. From 2007-2016 he was employed at Carlton Palms Educational Center where he worked as a Behavioral Therapist. He worked with kids and adults ranging from the ages of 10 to 50. The main goal he wanted to achieve was mentorship and changing individual's lives. His life long goal was to become an entrepreneur and operate a behavioral health center. Brandon "Meechie" was a caring, giving, fun-loving, out-going and all around people person. His proudest moments were the births of Cameren Bascom and Madison Bascom. Meechie was an awesome dad. Some of his happiest times were with his kids, nephews and nieces. He loved playing basketball and spending time with family and friends. He would never turn down a dunk challenge. He didn't know a stranger. He greeted everyone with a BIG hug and HUGE smile. If you encountered Meechie he would become a life-long friend.

On the afternoon of December 17, 2016 Brandon "Meechie" Bascom was called to "Rest in Peace." His departure is a deep and personal loss to his family and friends and he will be greatly missed by them all.

Brandon was preceded in death by his grandparents, Hester Lockhart and Benjamin Bascom, Henry Haynes and brother Ronnie Bascom Jr.

Brandon leaves to cherish precious memories: daughter, Madison Bascom; son, Cameren Bascom; loving and devoted parents, Minister Ronnie Bascom, Sr. and Evangelist Sophia Bascom of Zellwood, Florida; siblings, Benjamin Bascom, Aquilla Bascom and Brittane Bascom, all of Zellwood, Florida; nephews, John Miller and Zion Miller; niece, Imani Diamond; a special grandmother, Rose Ann Haynes of Orlando, Florida; grandfather, Shellie Lipcomb of Apopka, Florida; and a host of aunts, uncles, other relatives and sorrowing friends.
