

Brandon Tyrese Wright

June 18, 2003 - July 21, 2022

Brandon Tyrese Wright was the baby of Tamica Howard and Kevin Wright. He was one of the joys of his parent's life. His parents knew early in life that he would run track or play baseball because he was always throwing and went from crawling to running through the house. Brandon began to play football at the age of four and he excelled at it. In middle school, he decided he didn't like being tackled, so in high school, he started running track and was one of the best on the team. Brandon had a full scholarship to college but declined because of an injury he sustained.

He enjoyed rapping and performing and hoped to one day become a producer and mentor to kids that lost a father. He had a great bond with his siblings who made sure he was loved and spoiled. He had dear love for both of his grandmothers. Brandon's mom was always eager to see him come home so they could talk about their day and she could give him advice and motivation. Brandon loved and missed his dad. He had a loyalty for his friends and respect and compassion for everyone. He adored his god-daughter and his dog, Princess Isabella Wright (Bella).

Brandon was preceded in death by his Father, Kevin Wright
