

Burnard L. Odum, Jr.

March 12, 1995 - December 14, 2022

Burnard L. Odum, Jr. was born March 12, 1995 in Orlando, Florida to parents Burnard L. Odum, Sr. and Brenda Streeter-Odum. He attended and graduated from Maynard Evans High School in Orlando, Florida.

Burnard worked hard to provide for himself and his beautiful daughter Aliyah, whom he adored more than anything in the world. He was a loving father and son, who loved spending quality time with his family and friends. He was loved and liked by his many, many friends.

Burnard was a kind, gentle soul. Everyone he met came to love him because of his pleasant personality. His mother was indeed his biggest cheerleader. They shared a unique "Mother/Son" bond, in which he admired and adored her. He was always appreciative of the care she provided throughout his life. Burnard was indeed truly a fighter for life; although he was met with many health limitations from a young child, he fought hard to live as normal as he could.

He was employed in the Foodservice Industry, as a cook. Burnard loved watching horror movies and playing video games in his spare time. He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

Burnard was preceded in death by his Maternal Grandmother, Lavonla

Streeter; Aunt, Demetra Bush; and Cousin, Tracy Fair.

Left to Cherish his precious memory are his beautiful Daughter, Aliyah Odum; Father, Burnard Odum, Sr. of Orlando, Florida; loving and devoted Mother, Brenda Streeter-Odum of Orlando, Florida ; 5 Siblings; a host of Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
