On June 30, 1977 a bouncing baby boy (Carlos Lescan Brown), was born at Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, D.C. to Kenneth Charles Brown and Joy Jennings Brown. He was the apple of their eyes.

Carlos was an Army Brat, so shortly after his arrival, his father was stationed in Italy for his toddler years. In 1986 his G.I. father was transferred to Fort Bragg. So the Carolina life began and through the good and bad he made the best of it.

Carlos had an impressive Rap career. As a member of Fayetteville finest, Bomm Sheltuh Group. He was a mentor, manager and an avid writer of lyrics and his innermost thoughts.

He was preceded in death by his parents; father, Kenneth Charles Brown and mother, Joy Jennings. both paternal and maternal grandparents and special aunt, Carmelita Faith Jennings.

He leaves to cherish his memories: seven aunts: Cheryl Y. Edwards and Shanda F. Brown of Groveland, Florida, Latanya M. Roberson (Ricki) of Clermont, Florida, Cassandra Brown Davis of Altamonte Springs, Florida, April Jennings, Christina Brown and Yolande Jennings of Laurel, Maryland; a host of cousins and sorrowing friends.
