

Carlos A. Sanabria

September 5, 1968 - September 12, 2025

Carlos A. Sanabria was born on September 5, 1968, in Puerto Rico to Antonio and Catalina Sanabria. He was a devoted husband, father, and grandfather whose greatest joy was his family.

A man of faith, Carlos loved the Lord deeply and lived his life with courage and strength. He was a true warrior throughout his battle with brain cancer, showing bravery and resilience until the very end. Beyond his devotion to family and faith, Carlos had a passion for fishing and was an avid movie buff. His laughter, wisdom, and warmth will be remembered by all who knew him. To his family, he was not only a father, and husband, but also a hero.

Carlos Sanabria, 57, of Altamonte Springs, Florida surrounded by his loving family. He was preceded in death by his father, Antonio Sanabria.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Annette Sanabria; his children: Jeanelle Johnson, Andre Sanabria, Aryana Sanabria, Jasmine Sanabria, and Derrick Velez; and his seven cherished grand-children. He also leaves behind his mother, Catalina Sanabria; siblings: Damaris Sanabria Marroquin, Brenda Sanabria Hibbert, and Eliu Sanabria.

Carlos's legacy of love, faith, and strength will live on in the hearts of all who loved him.

“ Proverbs 18:24

Speaks of a brother who sticks closer than a brother and that was you in my life. I'm sorry I didn't get up and speak when given the opportunity but two minutes would not have been suffice in what you have meant to me. I just wanted to say that Annette was amazing until the end and Eliu was an absolute hero. They were both inspirational. You always first in everything but I will see you soon and eventually catch up. Rest in the arms of Jesus and I will see you soon.
