

Carol A. Ewell

March 13, 1949 - August 25, 2022

Carol was born to Howard B. Ewell, Sr. and Eddy Lee Ewell (Russell) on March 13, 1949, in Harlem, New York. Carol was the youngest of three children.

Carol graduated from Walton High School located in Bronx, NY, and then gained employment at The New York Telephone Company. After a short stay at the Telephone Company, Carol moved on to make a career at The Department of Human Resources of New York City. There she worked for 30 plus years, retiring from a manager position.

Carol was blessed with a large and loving family. Carol raised her two children, Nicole and Tyrone Ewell and had a helping hand in raising her nieces and nephews

Carol in her later years, gave her life to Christ and joined W.I.N. 1 Ministries where she was a member of the Usher Board and Financial Team. She loved volunteering at the Food Pantry. Carol was also an active member of The Mets Club and The National Council of Negro Women.

Carol Ewell returned to her heavenly home on August 25, 2022. Her devotion to her family and her firm belief in God, supported her during her trying times and ultimately gave her peace.

Carol was preceded in death by her father: Howard B. Ewell; mother: Eddy Lee Ewell and brother: Raymond Harris Ewell, Sr.

Carol is survived by her children: Nicole and Tyrone Ewell; granddaughter: Shadania Ewell; great granddaughter: Skylar Carson; brother: Howard B. Ewell, Jr.; sister-in-Law: Patricia Ewell; a cousin/sister: Joan Boyce: a host of nieces, nephews, other loving family and friends.
