

Carol Ancel Young

November 27, 1982 - January 13, 2024

Carol Ancel Young is a daughter, sister, niece, cousin, friend, and lover of life. She was born in Houston, TX to Mary Carolyn “Cal” Prince Young and Jerone B. Young, Sr. Although born in Houston, TX, she was raised in Tampa, FL, where she lived the majority of her life. She attended Florida Atlantic University, received her Bachelor's in Business Administration and contributed her talents to Humana Inc., since 2006. Outside of school and work, she traveled with friends and family to several countries and places around the States. She enjoyed shopping and trying new things and was known for her gentle, calm demeanor and loving spirit. She walked regularly with her mother, Cal, and loved being active, dancing, and doing yoga.

She wanted to be remembered, as she was, full of life, love and ready for the next adventure.

“ Weeks later and I was still hoping that this is not true, perhaps someone was mistaken, got the names mixed up. I can't believe I'll never see your beautiful smile, hear your soft voice. Such a sweet soul but our lord sometimes chooses the best. I will miss our quick chats at work, instant messages and the phone calls which kept our friendship alive. Sleep in peace my dear friend until we meet again. You will live in my heart forever.
