Casmore O' Donnelley Lewis better known as "Squeely", was born on December 16, 1958, in St. Johns, Antigua to the late Melanie Durham and Roy Lewis. He has an older brother named Clearfoster and two younger siblings, Dave and Norma. He peacefully departed this world on September 28, 2024.

Casmore was very ambitious and full of life. He took pride in everything he did and gave his all no matter what it was. He was an industrious worker from a youthful age. He held numerous jobs while living in Antigua and in 2000 he moved to Orlando, FL, to be with his wife Joycelyn Lewis. There, he landed a landscaping job at Poole and Fuller while working at McDonald's parttime, as a maintenance technician. He did such an outstanding job as a landscaper, that he developed his own landscaping business with a vast clientele. He had found his calling that led to a wonderful life for which he was grateful. In 2017, Casmore had to retire from the job he loved and did with such profession because he fell ill.

He enjoyed sitting in his garage listening to Calypso, Soca, and Reggae from well-known artists such as Beres Hammond and Bob Marley. He enjoyed music so much, he would dance by himself without a shirt for all to see waving his Antiguan flag. He was quite the entertainer at family parties and get-togethers, which were held quite frequently.

He married the love of his life (Joycelyn) on July 27, 1996. He was a devoted father to his children: Mardon, Prudence, Rina, George, Gabriella, Karilyn; and two stepdaughters: Sherine and Leticia. He also had thirteen (13) grandkids and two (2) great-grand-children. Casmore was deeply loved by his family, friends, and all who truly knew him.

We will always remember his love for food and dancing style. Rest in peace, our beloved husband and father.
