

Cassie Lee Wilks

May 18, 1918 - January 31, 2021

Mother Cassie Lee Wilks was born May 18, 1918 in Amsterdam, Georgia to Mrs. Jessie and Johnny Milton. She was one of four siblings. She was educated in the public school system of Georgia. She was an avid basketball player in school and remained a basketball fan. Her favorite professional basketball team was the Orlando Magic. She had an opportunity to meet the basketball player Bo Outlaw at her 101st birthday. She worked for the public school system of Georgia. Mother Cassie was very passionate about her relationship with God. She loved the Lord and her family. She accepted the Lord at an early age and has been serving the Lord during her lifetime. She was a member of Warner Hill Baptist Church of Thomasville, Georgia where her husband Reverend Andrew Wilks was the pastor. After moving to Florida later on, she joined First Missionary Baptist Church of Groveland, Florida, where her son Bishop Isaac D. Wilkes, Sr. is the pastor. Mother Wilks was active in Sunday School and the Mother's Ministry and anything that she could do in the church until she became ill and could no longer attend Church on a regular basis. However, she remained faithful until the Lord called her home. Mother was well known by all for her sense of humor and her cooking. She made biscuits that literally melted in your mouth. Anything she cooked she cooked from "scratch". The family will miss her cooking and wisdom. She was married to Reverend Andrew Wilks, the mother of three children, Mary Alice, Betty and Isaac. She was preceded in death by her husband, Reverend Andrew Wilks, daughter, Mary Alice Crapp, mother, Mrs. Jessie Milton and Father, Mr. Johnny Milton, brothers, Guy, Joe and John Milton, four grandchildren, Wanda, Glen, Jean and Lossie and three great grandchildren. She leaves to cherish precious memories to two children: Betty Brown of Groveland, Florida and Isaac D. Wilkes, Sr. (Margie) of Mascotte, Florida; twenty-four grandchildren: fifty-eight great grandchildren: fifty-nine great-great grandchildren: five great-great-great grandchildren: a special niece: Arzina Bradshaw and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My beautiful beautiful grandma - OMG what a great time we have shared! You raised me from a toddler and made me the woman I am today! I am so blessed to have had you in my life. Although you are gone - I will ALWAYS have you close and dear to my heart! And there's nothing not even death can take away the love shared for me and Clint - and children - Tony, Lenis, Woody and A. RIP Grandma - we will always love you!

“ Mother you always showed me love from the first time I met you. Rest in peace. You fought a good fight and you kept the faith. To be absent from the body is to be present with the lord . You will never be forgotten.
