

Catalina C. Garcia

April 30, 1938 - March 25, 2025

Catalina was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and great-great grandmother. She loved her family and inspired them to lead faithful lives. She left us on March 25, 2025, in Orlando, Florida, leaving behind a legacy paved with love, faith, and devotion.

Catalina was born in Huautla, Hidalgo, Mexico on April 30, 1938, and was one of seven children. She is preceded by her six children - Jovita, Genaro, Victor, Lusía, Erminia, and Ermelinda: 19 grandchildren - Alex, Joe Luis, Andrea, Nicholas, Robert, Nathaniel, Venessa, Joshua, Travis, Bianca, Theresa, Matthew, April, Susie, Jerry, Jonathan, Michael, Stephanie, Cordi, and Ariana, along with 34 great-grandchildren and four great-great grandchildren.

Catalina's unwavering faith was the cornerstone of her life, and she will be lovingly remembered for her deep spirituality. Her greatest joy was seeing her family united and supporting one another through life's ups and downs. An avid gardener, she spent countless hours outdoors, nurturing her plants with the same care and devotion she showed her family. Her presence will be sorely missed, but her legacy of love and faith will endure in the hearts of those who knew her.

“ Grandma was so blessed to have loving men in her life. She had a wonderful husband, Victoriano Garcia, her own sons, grandchildren, and the supportive husbands of her daughters. Her son-in-laws loved her unconditionally, and she loved them as her own. Miguel Gutierrez, Sam Williams, and Joseph Quiroz, thank you for making her laugh and for showing her love, patience, and understanding. Thank you to Edwin for helping her tend to her garden, and passing the time in her presence.

Grandma enjoyed spending time with each of you, and we know you are grieving her as much as we are. We appreciate and love you. There is not enough thank you's to show our appreciation.
