

Cecil Bell Carter

November 17, 1926 - July 11, 2019

Sister Cecil B. Carter was born November 17, 1922 in Summerfield, Alabama to parents, Ell Reed, Sr. and Minnie Reed. She was preceded in death by parents; husband, Ernest Carter, Sr.; oldest daughter, Minnie Lust and son-in-law, Jimmie Lust. She is the last of 16 children. She was taught the gospel by her mother, and she remained faithful to the cause of Christ and His church until her demise in Orlando, Florida, where she resided.

“She was a Succourer of many” Romans 16:2. Many ministers, elders, deacons, brothers, sisters, children, and neighbors were always welcomed at her home.

She was a cook of cooks! Everywhere she lived and visited, many enjoyed her delicious meals! She was a mother to those who had lost their mother and a grandmother to those who had lost their grandmother. She was a woman of wisdom who was always willing to offer herself to anyone and share the gospel. She believed that it took a “village” to help the young and old, and her “village” extended to her dogs and cats!

She leaves to cherish her memory and the imprints of her life: Three sons: William Bell (Sarah), James Bell (Lucille), & Cecil Bell; One Daughter: Unita Orr (Charles); Sister-in-law: Hattie Reed; a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, God-children, nieces, nephews, cousins, very close friends, and her church family at West Orlando.

Cemetery Details

Washington Park Cemetery

2700 Bruton Boulevard
Orlando, FL 32805

Previous Events

Visitation

JUL 20. 10:30 AM (ET)

The Church of Christ at West Orlando
1825 N. Mercy Drive
Orlando, FL 32808

Service

JUL 20. 11:00 AM (ET)

The Church of Christ at West Orlando
1825 N. Mercy Drive
Orlando, FL 32808

Tribute Wall

“ Cecil Bell Carter

October 22, 2023 at 05:49 PM

“ I just want to say I'm surely gonna miss her and i wish that i could have attended the service to see her one more time she had been on my mind lately but hopefully i get to see her again one day whenever the lord takes me that i get to see all my family in heaven I'm sending my love and prayers I'm Elise May Reed granddaughter God bless us all.....

Alisa Smith - July 30, 2019 at 07:12 PM

“ Big mama It's so hard to say goodbye to you. I am still trying to process the fact I will never hear your voice again singing Happy Birthday to me. You and your mom and brothers and sisters and Daughter are all together again and can have that fish fry. God has blessed us with an angel named Cecil aka Big Mama❤️ Gone but never forgotten. Forever in my heart. I Love You suga suga suga 🌸

Karla Bell - July 26, 2019 at 12:10 AM

“ Tamika and I were so blessed to have had you in our lives. No one will ever be able to take the place of our Big Mama! Your beautiful spirit will be missed.
Love, your Shuga Shuga Shuga's
Judy and Tamika

Judy Hearn - July 25, 2019 at 06:25 PM

SR

“ Auntee, You have earned your crown! You have paid your dues and now you can rest because God loves you best so wear your crown! Love Sharyl & family! God Bless!💖

Sharyl Reed - July 25, 2019 at 02:59 PM

DC

“ I was so blessed to have known my precious Aunt Cecil, from a child, and also in my adult life. She was a true example of a Woman of Faith, who feared the Lord (Proverbs 31:30).

Much love for the family always,

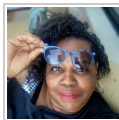

Denys (Reed) Culpepper & family

Denys Culpepper - July 25, 2019 at 01:54 PM

RE

Loving you always, God let me borrow you for all of my life and a blessing it was, you had enough love for all of us, I love you tee tee always and forever, Rest In Peace my auntie

Rebecca - July 25, 2019 at 08:43 PM

Aunt Cecil you will forever be in our lives and hearts. I love what your son n law Charles said at your beautiful eulogy. "We can't guarantee who goes to heaven but I like her odds". I hope and pray I have odds like that one day and will continually work on my chances . I will think of you and what an exemplifying example you have made on my life.

Ericca Terry - July 27, 2019 at 04:03 PM

“ Your Children lit a candle in memory of Cecil Bell Carter

Your Children - July 25, 2019 at 11:08 AM

DN

“ Sister Cecil B. Carter was born November 17, 1922 to parents, Ell and Minnie Reed. She was preceded in death by parents, husband, Ernest Carter Sr., oldest daughter, Minnie Lust and son in-law, Jimmie Lust. She is the last of 16 children. She was taught the gospel by her mother, and she remained faithful to the cause of Christ and His church until her demise in Orlando, Florida, where she resided.

“She was a Succourer of many” Romans 16:2. Many ministers, elders, deacons, brothers, sisters, children, and neighbors were always welcomed at her home.

She was a cook of cooks! Everywhere she lived and visited, many enjoyed her delicious meals! She was a mother to those who had lost their mother and a grandmother to those who had lost their grandmother. She was a woman of wisdom who was always willing to offer herself to anyone and share the gospel. She believed that it took a “village” to help the young and old, and her “village” extended to her dog and cats!

YOU SHOULD KNOW ... that man did not...

Purpose the church.....Eph. 3:10-11

Purchase the church.....Acts 20:28; Eph 5:25

Name the church.....Eph 3:21; Rom 16:16

Give the church its doctrine....Gal 1:8-11; 2 John 9-11

Name its people.....Acts 11:26; 1 Peter 4:16

Prove all things; and hold fast that which is good” 1 Thessalonians 5:21

Daughter- Nita - July 25, 2019 at 10:54 AM

“ Basket Full of Wishes was purchased for the family of Cecil Bell Carter.

July 19, 2019 at 10:51 AM

“ Summer's Light Bouquet was purchased for the family of Cecil Bell Carter.

July 16, 2019 at 01:41 PM