

Cedric D. Nichols Sr.

October 18, 1984 - November 15, 2024

Cedric Nichols, Sr. was born October 18, 1984, in Nashville, Tennessee, to parents, Joseph Pearson and Rose Ann Magee. At a young age, the family relocated to Clermont, Florida. He attended Lake County Public Schools and graduated from Clermont High School.

After graduating high school, his passion for cooking inspired him to further his education by attending Culinary school. As a career, he worked as a cook in various restaurants.

Cedric had his eldest son, Montre. He later met and married his wife, Jessica, with whom he expanded his family, and two more children were born.

While cooking was one of his passions, he also enjoyed music. He loved singing and playing the guitar and the drums. He attended Kingdom Dominion Abundant Life Center in Orlando, Florida, under the leadership of Bishop S. C. Johnson, Sr. While there, he used his gift of music to serve as a drummer for the church.

Cedric was a very caring, loving, and kind person. Although he was a private person, he made a lasting impact on everyone he met, be it his smile that would light up a room or his kindness. Family meant the world to him. He loved spending quality time with his wife, children, and mother. He took great pride in caring for his family, eventually becoming a caregiver to his mother. Which was a task he took on with much joy.

Cedric was preceded in death by his Father, Joseph Pearson; and Daughter, Princess Nichols.

Left to cherish his memory: his loving Wife, Jessica Nichols of Lake Wales, Florida; Sons: Cedric Nichols, Jr. of Lake Wales, Florida, and Montre Nichols of Georgia; Daughter, Angel Nichols of Lake Wales, Florida; Loving Mother, Rose Ann Magee of Clermont, Florida; Brothers: Darrin Nichols of Clermont, Florida, and Myron Nichols of Clermont, Florida; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other loving relatives, and friends.
