

Charlie Williams Jr.

November 4, 1938 - December 4, 2024

Affectionately known as "Charles" by friends and loved ones. He was born on November 4, 1938, in Macon County, Notasulga, Alabama, to the proud parents of Charlie and Johnnie Mae Williams. One of eight children.

He attended the great Jones High School and started working in the restaurant business at an early age. It was in the late 50's he left the fair city of Orlando to relocate to the state of New York. He started working for a taxi company in Syracuse, New York. Several years later with the taxi business, he started his own taxi company (The Central Taxi) in White Plains, NY., and it is still operating to his date.

Charles built a legacy as the proud owner of this taxi company. He took great pride in providing dependable service to his community while showcasing his entrepreneurial skills and spirit. Beyond his work, he was a passionate and skilled fisherman, known for his love of the water and his ability to reel in impressive catches. His dedication to both his business and his favorite pastime left a mark on those who knew him, the embodiment of hard work, determination, and a deep appreciation for life's simple joys.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Ethel Brice-Williams; Parents, Charles and Johnnie Mae Williams; Granddaughter, Krista Yon; Sisters, Annie Ruth Ezell and Lessie Ren Williams-Caison and Brother, John Will Williams.

He leaves to cherish his memories: One son: Shawn Terrence Brice-Williams of NY; Step-daughter: Patrice Brice-Yon of SC; Siblings: Mattie Shepherd of Orlando; Elaine Williams of North Carolina; James (Valerie-Smith) Williams of Orlando, FL; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and many sorrowing friends.
