

Clemmie L. Bowers Wright

November 29, 1930 - January 26, 2015

Clemmie was born on November 29, 1930 to Reverend Grover F. Bowers and Texanna Bowers in Bascom, a small city in Jackson County located in north Florida.

Clemmie was educated in Jackson County's public schools. She was employed as a Greenhouse Technician in the Foliage Industry most of her life. She was introduced to the Lord at an early age and her relationship with the Lord was her first priority. Her family relocated to Lake County, Florida in the 1950's and soon thereafter, the family, and Clemmie, became members of the Mt. Calvary Missionary Baptist Church of Leesburg, Florida. Clemmie loved her church and attended frequently until her health began to decline. As life would have it, she later required constant care and resided in nursing home facilities and had hospital stays. Clemmie was known for her powerful prayers, she would pray with such authority and conviction. Throughout her last days in life, she could be heard talking to the Lord and praying. All of her family and caring friends will certainly miss her, and her one of a kind outgoing and spunky personality, but the memories of her will live on forever.

Clemmie was preceded in death by her parents, Reverend Grover F. Bowers and Texanna Bowers and six of her siblings.

Clemmie came from a large family and was the ninth of twelve children; her living siblings are Josephine Lewis of Leesburg, Florida, Gertrude Mullins of Clermont, Florida, Margaret Sessler, Lena Williams and Katie Greenidge, all of Leesburg, Florida; Rosiland Bouie is her niece, however Clemmie cherished her as a daughter.
