

Reverend Clifford Odelando Rodgers, Jr.

December 7, 1949 - May 29, 2017

Rev. Clifford O. Rodgers was born in Clayton, Al on December 7, 1949 to Clifford and Zera L. Rodgers. He was the first of eight children.

Clifford grew up in the West Orange County community in Winter Garden, FL. He attended Charles R. Drew School from Elementary – High School earning his High School diploma in 1967. Shortly after completing high school he was drafted into the U.S. Army and served his country in Vietnam. In 1977 he met and married to Suzette Coley of Miami, FL. To this union his three sons were born.

Clifford accepted Christ into his life at an early age , which lead to his calling into the ministry, and earning a Bachelor’s Degree in Theology from International Bible College. After the passing of his wife Suzette, Clifford relocated to Clayton, Alabama where he could live out his passion of gardening, fishing, and farming.

In 2014 he met and married Brenda Johnson and he continued his purpose in life to minister the Word of God, becoming a member of the Deacon Board of Center Ridge Missionary Baptist Church, of Midway, Alabama where he was a faithful member.

Clifford leaves to cherish memories a devoted wife Brenda, three sons

Timothy, Jonathan (Juanita) and Simeon Two grandchildren Jada and Adrian (Albany, Ga.). A loving mother, Zera Rodgers, four sisters Hazel (Bishop Cornelius), Marion, Vanessa (Glennis), and Gladys. Three brothers Donald (Marvelous), Thomas and Allistair. Four aunts, two uncles and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and acquaintances.
