

Clyde Edward Johnson, Sr.

June 12, 1947 - June 27, 2014

Clyde Edward Johnson, Sr. was born on December 12, 1947 to Johnny Johnson and Daisy Bass Johnson in Canton, Mississippi. He attended McNeal Elementary School in Canton and later moved to Winter Garden, Florida where he attended Charles R. Drew. Clyde was the eighth child of twelve children and you can just imagine he was definitely “stuck in the middle” of something most of the time. I can remember him getting into mischief just because he wanted to see if he could get away with it. One night the fire alarm sounded at the school and it was discovered by the police that he was the culprit. When asked why he did such a thing; he could only shrug his shoulders and hang his head. Needless to say, he didn’t go to jail but he would have gladly gone in place of that good old fashioned whipping he got from his mama. He later married and had one son. Clyde moved up north and lived in New York and Pennsylvania for many years before moving back to Florida approximately four year ago. Like so many of us, Clyde lived his life the way he wanted to. After discovering he was terminally ill, he didn’t linger long. While lying in that hospital bed, he asked God to forgive him of his sins and to come into his heart. We praise God for that!

Clyde was preceded in death by his parents Johnny Johnson and Daisy Bass Johnson, sisters, Anniece Tolliver, Doris Clark, Daisy Darby and brother, James Johnson.

Memories of Clyde Edward Johnson will live on in the hearts of his family; one son, Clyde Johnson, Jr. of Wildwood, Florida; three sisters: Willie Mae Williams of Rochester, New York; Bennie M. Lockett of Indianapolis, Indiana; Glorysteen Simmons of Orlando, Florida; four brothers: Joseph Johnson of Erie, Pennsylvania; Lee Earl Johnson of New York; Leon Johnson of Indianapolis, Indiana; Melvin Johnson of Winter Garden, Florida; one aunt: Margaret Nicholson of Indianapolis, Indiana; so many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends; a special "thank you" to a very special lady and landlord, Mrs. Mildred Holt.
