

Collin Ainsley Smith

December 1, 1941 - March 2, 2019

Collin Ainsley Smith was born December 1, 1941 in Trinidad & Tobago to parents Edna and Charles “Charlo” Smith.

Collin attended Belmont Boys Roman Catholic where he developed a passion for reading and sports, particularly football and cricket. Upon graduation, Collin briefly worked in a Port of Spain tire shop before becoming employed fulltime in Public Transportation Services. He would go on to work with public transportation for 30 years and within that time, he would build his legacy. The beginning of which was meeting his wife Cecilia Smith of 47 years and starting a family.

Cherylyn came first, then Nwabu, Kwesi and Afiesha. Collin lived to see all of his children grow up and have families of their own, blessing him with 10 grandchildren.

Collin had many achievements but among his greatest was passing on his faith to his family and everyone he met. Through dedication, obedience and the spirit of the Most High, he reclaimed his heritage as a Hebrew Israelite.

He is preceded in death by his father: Charles Smith and mother: Edna Louise Harris.

He leaves to cherish his memories his wife: Cecilia Smith of Orlando, FL ; children: Cheryl Lisa Smith ( Hayden Richards ) and Kwesi Azikiwe Smith ( Shizuka ) all of Newport News, VA , Nwabudike Ayinde Smith ( Tinicia ) of San Diego, CA and Afiesha Cherrysse Ayanna Smith ( Matthew Lawrence ) of Orlando, Florida; siblings: Arlene Lewis of Brooklyn, NY , Diane Wescott ( Winston ) of Springhill, FL , Lynette SmithAdams of Baltimore, MD , Aurthur Smith ( Barbara ) of Tyler, TX and Yoland George ( Ronald ) of Plantation, FL ; grandchildren: Narqesse Smith, Hayley Richards, Nhirie Smith, Zedahn Smith, Shyota Smith, Joel Smith, Naoki Smith, Anya Smith-Lawrence, Zakai Smith and Zeniyah Smith and a host of other relatives and friends.
