

Comel Clay Ashley

June 21, 1935 - April 1, 2025

Comel Clay Ashley was born June 21, 1935, in Bristol, Georgia, to Enoch and Leoneas Ashley. Comel's family relocated to Florida and settled in Zellwood, where he attended Orange County Public Schools.

He later met and married Margaret Ann Poindexter (deceased), and there were six children born to their union.

Comel was a life-long over-the-road truck driver for companies like Drum Service, Connelly Citrus, and Wamble Trucking. He believed in hard work and providing for his family.

Comel accepted Christ and joined St. Luke Full Gospel Baptist Church, under the leadership of Pastor Hezekiah Bradford, Jr. whom he constantly boasted about.

He enjoyed fishing and made sure he taught Carlton, his son to do so. He also enjoyed race cars and mechanics. He mastered dominos and Gin Rummy, spending late nights with his granddaughter, Renee teaching her the skills. He also loved Gene Autry, Hopalong Cassidy, Walker Texas Ranger, and the infamous Pastor Gilbert Earl Patterson. Although firm like a rock, he was loving and loved by many.

Comel was preceded in death by his father, Enoch Ashley; mother, Leoneas Ashley; wife, Margaret Ashley; sister, Bernice Pollock; and son, Clinton Curry.
