

Crystal Felisha Perry

March 18, 1975 - April 5, 2023

A Time To Be Born

Crystal Felisha Perry was born on March 18, 1975 in Orlando, Florida to Charlotte and Jerome Perry. Crystal was known as "Blackgirl" to everyone who loved her. Crystal was the second oldest of five children.

A Walk of Faith

Crystal grew up in a strong Christian family, rooted in values, and accepted Christ at an early age as a member of St. Luke Missionary Baptist Church, Kissimmee. Crystal later relocated to Blakey, Georgia where she joined the Wesley Chapel AME Church. Crystal also enjoyed reading her "Daily Bread" every morning.

A Time to Work

Crystal has always worked throughout her life. She explored many avenues of employment including cashiering, food service, housekeeping, and worked as an aide in both the hospital and nursing home setting.

A Time to Live and Love

Crystal was a very sociable person who enjoyed being with family and friends. She also enjoyed cooking, fashion, fishing, and just being out doors. Crystal loved her children dearly and didn't miss a chance to speak proudly of them. She taught her son, Trevon, everything he knows today about cooking, and always spoke of how grateful she was for his big, loving, and caring heart. She adored the grandchildren that her son, Keyontay, gave her and cherished him for the love he poured into her no matter what. She enjoyed attending her son, Malcolm's, football games from when he played in little league football until college. She could be heard cheering in the stands for her "baby". She loved to show off her "trackstar" daughter, Sadae, and tell everyone how fast and smart she was. She adored her bonus daughter, Yazmia, who she immediately embraced as her own and loved her just as much.
