

Cynthia L. Bell

January 9, 1950 - March 1, 2023

Cynthia Lyvonn Bell “Sweetie” was born on January 9, 1950 in Orlando, Florida, to Woodman Brooks, Mary Lilly Manuel and loving grandparents, Walter and Cora “Momma Cora” Manuel.

Cynthia aka Sweetie

She was a fun loving person who enjoyed working with kids as well as performing housekeeping duties. Sweetie developed a strong passion for working with the elderly. She enjoyed making them smile and making them comfortable. There was no task that was too large or small with assisting others. She loved her family and had a special twinkle in her eye for Shanique.

She loved her church and her gospel music. She had a strong belief in the Lord Jesus Christ and she never wavered in her faith, because of her strong upbringing and teaching from her grandmother, Cora Manuel and mother, Mary Manuel. In addition, there were other queens in the family who contributed to her being a strong beautiful black woman and they included her aunts: Cora Bryant, Mary White, Beatrice McClain and Geraldine Manuel. Her village moms were Mrs. Maereather, Ms. Manda, Mrs. Janie, Ms. Ethel, Mrs. Parish, Mrs. Eddie Mae, Ms. Iola, and Mrs. Anderson.

Cynthia was preceded in death by, Grandparents: Walter and Cora Manuel;

Father, Woodman Brooks; Mother, Mary Lilly Manuel; Husband, Tommy Bell;
Brothers: Clarence Emanuel Sr. and Walter Jones.

She leaves to cherish two sisters: Marilyn and Rachel Miller of Altamonte Springs, Florida; two brothers and sisters-in-law: Brother, Larry Miller and Wife, Faye Miller of Winter Park, Florida; and Brother, Mark Miller and Wife, Dr. Telva Miller of Kissimmee, Florida; her cousin, Shanique Sneed and a host of other cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.
