

Cynthia Hanible Burrus

May 30, 1951 - March 22, 2020

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Cynthia Hanible Burrus was born to Alice Bruton and James Theodore Hanible on May 30, 1951.

Cynthia graduated from Jones High School, Class of 1969. She continued her education at Florida A & M University in Tallahassee, Florida and received her B.S. Degree in Elementary Education. She is a member of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. She also attended the University of Central Florida and received a Master's Degree of Education in Early Education. She retired from Orange County Public Schools after 30 years of service. Cynthia's love for children inspired her to be a Crossing Guard after retiring. In her spare time, Cynthia enjoyed sewing and doing crafts; which she often gave to people for a keepsake.

Cynthia had a very unique bond with her brothers, nieces and nephews. She always found time to be an advisor and supporter in whatever endeavors she embarked upon.

Cynthia's only daughter and granddaughter were her best friends, their bond was indescribable.

She was preceded in death by her husband: Fred C. Burrus; father: James Theodore Hanible; sisters: Patricia Hanible Phillips, Barbara Dibble; brothers: Ronald Hanible and Tony Powell.

She leaves to cherish precious memories to: one loving and devoted daughter: Cherissa Drew (Dru) of Orlando, Florida; mother: Alice Hanible of Orlando, Florida; granddaughter: Cheleah Drew of Orlando, Florida; siblings: Joseph Bruton, James T. Hanible, Jr. (Shirley), Donald C. Hanible, Jerome Hanible (Patricia), John Powell, Jr. (Michelle) all of Orlando, Florida and Karl Powell, Sr. (Tasha) of Tampa, Florida; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and sorrowing friends.

“ It is with great sorrow I hear of Ms. Hanible's transition. She taught me in the 4th grade at Grand Ave. I am 53 and I still to this day credit her for a lot of things that I do because of her great teaching.

“ This last summer I had the opportunity to spend some time with Cynthia at her lovely home. She was such a gracious hostess. I cherish that time, and was looking forward to spending time with her up north. I expected her to visit this coming summer. I will miss her beautiful smile and pleasant disposition.
I send my deepest sympathy to her daughter, granddaughter, and all the other family members.

Condolences,
Terrie Stanley
