

Cynthia Louise Jenkins

September 12, 1964 - January 22, 2024

Cynthia Louise Jenkins was born on September 12, 1964, in Kissimmee, Florida to parents, Melvin Jenkins, Sr. and Martha Jenkins. She was the tenth child of twelve children (eight girls and four boys). She attended public schools in Osceola County and graduated from Osceola High School of 1984.

Cynthia was a fun, loving, and stern person. Her bright smile and sense of humor made her easy to get along with. She had many lifelong friends because of the person she was to them. While being fun and welcoming, Cynthia was also outspoken and stood for what she believed in. She was never afraid to speak her mind.

She was a lover of sports. In high school, she played volleyball where she was named MVP on numerous occasions. She was also very passionate about her football teams, FSU and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Cynthia devoted her life to being a loving mother and grandmother to her other children and two grandsons.

There was nothing she wouldn't do for them. She was a protector of family, and always had their back.

She was a hard worker. At young age, she employed at Hyatt House in Kissimmee, Florida for many years until they closed their doors. After which she worked at Sea World, then Discovery Cove as a supervisor.

Cynthia was preceded in death by her Father, Melvin Jenkins, Sr.; Mother, Martha Louise Jenkins; Sisters: Linda Smith, Debra Jenkins, and Diana Flowers; and Niece: Natesha Smith.
